Context:

The primary goal of higher education, particularly in general streams, has suffered asetbackinrecenttimes.Jobsintheacademicsectorhavedriedupin West Bengal and administrative jobs in PSUs are getting limited day by day due to various reasons.Thepandemichasworsenedthesituation.Asaresultofthesetheprospect of entry in services is going to be more challenging. A mere graduation certificate appears to be a useless piece of paper due to massive unemployment.

Objective:

To deal with this emerging crisis, the Department has devised an Add-On Course on Indian History and Freedom Struggle to instill among our students a sense of awareness and urgency to meet up the requirement of competitive examinations. A graduate degree enables a student to appear in job oriented examinations that includes inter alia, UPSC and PSC Civil Services, Railway Recruitment Board, Bank Probationary Officers, LIC and other examinations of equal nature. It will be unjust to claim that this Course can provide a comprehensive and extensive preparatory model due to the constraints of time and human resources. The initial objective of this project is to make the students acquainted with the initial and basic parameters of the requirements in Indian History and Freedom Struggle of the aforesaid examinations.

A Seven-day ADD ON Certificate Course on
"Indian History and Freedom Struggle"

Modus Operandi

The under graduate students with or without history as a subject in the curriculum has to encounter diversified Multiple Choice Questions from Indian History as well as Indian Freedom struggle. The internal faculties of the Department will clear the basic concepts about the fundamentals of Indian History and Indian Freedom Struggle. 30 hours of coursework will have the following components -a) instructional hours =28, b) Course-End Examination/Assessment: 1 hour, c) Project Report: 1 hour. After successful completion of the course, a certificate will be issued to the students.

Project Outcome

The enrolled students will acquire knowledge on basic concepts of Indian History and Culture and that of the world's most elongated freedom struggle movement. These Add-on courses will enable them to deal with the Multiple Choice Questions by providing a holistic approach to the History syllabus within the General Studies framework of UPSC/PSC/Bank P.O/ etc. examinations. The course will introduce them in the difficult terrains of job oriented market demands. We can judge ourselves as fortunate if a good number of students of our college can achieve success in the competitive examinations in near future.

Feedback Analysis

About 90% of the participants were very satisfied with the course. 85% agreed that the course curriculum was Very beneficial for them and about the same percentage of the participants suggested that such type of Courses should be organized by the Political Science department. 80% of the participants were happy with the Teachers delivering lectures. The overall analysis of the feedback from the participants suggests that the course was a success.
